HAMPTON INSPIRED HOME IN SOUTHSIDE

This stunning near new home is located in a boutique cul-de-sac allowing quiet and private living but being so close to Southside's amenities. Set on a 830m² fully fenced block with double gate access. Within walking distance to supermarkets and medical centres and a short 5 minute drive to the city centre, this house is ideally located.

This outstanding home presents a beautiful warm palate of Hampton inspired style. The kitchen offers white Caesarstone bench tops and white 2 pac cabinets with soft close doors. The island bench allows for a bright and spacious area blending seamlessly into the family and dining areas.

The spacious living area is complimented by large stacker doors opening onto the family and dining room onto the external living space inciting indoor-outdoor living. The sand travertine rectified tiles throughout the kitchen and living areas allow for a bright and open space.

The home features a separate media room with an internal window that offers more natural light and is quite a striking feature. The secluded master suite is another feature to note, with a separate entrance and hallways leading to the master bedroom. The ensuite is fitted with extra large shower with dual shower heads.

Ample storage is available with a linen cupboard, pantry and a separate laundry.
